Volume One

Garden Spot High School

New Holland, Pennsylvania

Eastern Lancaster County Joint School

District

Foreword

It is with deep pride that we, the yearbook staff of Garden Spot High School, present the school's first annual "Spartanus". We hope it will be enlightening to those who read it, and a pattern for the publications in the years to come.

We have tried to present the material in a pleasing manner. The yearbook should familiarize you with the students at Garden Spot and bring you a little closer to the activities here.

The name, "Spartanus," was chosen by the students themselves. It is based on the school seal, a Spartan head, selected by the Student Council, and approved by the student body.

CHARLOTTE DELP,

Editor

Dedication

To you, Mr. Ranck, we, the student body of Garden Spot High School, wish to dedicate our first yearbook.

We recognize and appreciate your sincere devotion to the ideals of promoting better educational opportunities for all of us. As president of the Eastern Lancaster County Joint School Board for the past ten years you have proven your intense interest in the educational system.

Also, Mr. Ranck, the student body of Garden Spot High School is deeply grateful for your contributions toward obtaining a new high school for our future graduates. To you go all words of praise for accomplishing such a difficult task.

Accept this dedication as our way of saying "thanks" to you for all you have done.

Appreciation

The seniors wish to dedicate this page to you, Miss Troxell and Mr. Brandau, our class advisors, in appreciation of all you have done for us.

Throughout our high school days, you have been ready and willing to guide us in our decisions, to help make our tasks easier, and to be true friends to all of us. Without you, we would have had a lot less fun and would have made many mistakes.

You both helped us greatly in our junior year, but especially in our senior year when we needed guidance most.

This page is only a small way of expressing our gratitude to two wonderful advisors.

In order to give the students of Gardner Senior High School a governing body, the Student Council was organized and a constitution established. Students from every class in the Senior High School are representatives on the Council, which has a membership of fifteen. Heading this year's Council is Ronald Groh as President, with John Gungish, Vice President, and Mary Ellen Faust and Ted Kurtz taking the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, respectively. Our Student Council sends representatives to state and district conventions as well as to county conventions.

The Student Council was successful in purchasing a ray telephoner, which is now in use. Outfits for the cheerleaders and jackets for the basketball team were purchased. The Student Council was responsible for the outside assemblies. Buses were obtained by the Council to transport students to the away basketball games.

The standard seal for the school rings was also designed by the Student Council. A school seal was drawn up by engineers at the New Holland Machine Company with the approval of the Student Council.

The organization is maintaining a school log and is planning to be trained for all sports pictures and graduation pictures.

Sponsorship of three senior dances by the Student Council was a big part of its curriculum this year.

Your Student Council welcomes suggestions at any time. They may be placed in the suggestion box in the front hall.

We must ever emphasize the work of this organization in the school life. They have exerted a very strong influence in adjusting the various phases of school life in the formation of our jointure.

Junior High Student Council

This year for the first time in Garden Spot High School's history, a Student Council including the whole picture has been formed in the Junior High building. They act along with the Senior Council, as the governing organization of the school.

The thirty members of the Council are led by: Robert Andrew, President; Darryl Smith, Vice President; Mary Ann Boudier, Secretary, and Marianne Evans, Treasurer.

Although most activities of the Council are done on a joint basis with the Senior High group, various student interest projects have been organized throughout the year.

One project was the Christmas decoration program. Each section decorated their home rooms, and the best one was awarded a $5.00 prize. Postcard-writers are being collected to send to retarded children. A basketball and a St. Valentine contest are two more activities that were sponsored.

The Student Council holds one dance a year for Junior High pupils only.

A box for student's to offer suggestions is placed in the main hall. The support of every student is needed to carry out this program.
